Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Foster et al (CA113:131729).

Foster et al teach the compound, benzenepropanamine, N-methyl-[5-methyl-2-thienyl) thio]-, which reads on the instant genus when UTWM is thiophene, Y is methyl, V is sulfur, R1 is phenyl, R10 is H, Q is CH2, R2 or R3 is H and the other is methyl.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for "treating" the various disorders, does not reasonably provide enablement for "preventing" them. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

Prevention of pain (except prior to surgery or when pain is anticipated) associated with diseases or prevention of disorders or diseases is not yet known or practiced by the ordinary skilled artisan. The standard is treatment. The specification failed to enable the prevention of the disorders listed.

Removing the word prevention would overcome this rejection.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 13 and 14 recite, " A method, the method..." , this is redundant.

Claim Objections

Claims 2-4 and 15-21 are objected to for depending on a rejected base claim.
